

"York North" Again Asked For Over Two Million War Loan

Two score salesmen go out on Monday to ask the people of York North Victory loan unit for $2,300,000.

Chairman Aubrey Davis of Newmarket is directing this great undertaking, with Organizer H. L. Trapp as his right-hand man.

Newmarket salesmen are W. L. Eosworth, Walter H. Eves, R. R. McMath and C. C. Gamble. There will be an opening ceremony in Newmarket on Saturday evening. A parade, with R.C.A.F. band, Air Cadets and troops from No. 23 B.T.C. taking part, will leave Main and Huron Sts. at 7.45 p.m. and take part in a flag-raising ceremony at Water St. at 8.15 p.m.

Rev. G. H. Johnson, St. Paul's Anglican church, will give a prayer of dedication. Mayor Dr. L. W. Dales will present a replica of the sixth Victory loan insignia to Chairman Aubrey Davis.

A half hour R.C.A.F. band concert on Trinity United church lawn will follow.

Soldier Finds Etna Still Sleeping After 14 Years

Following is an extract from a January letter of Gnr. Lorne McCordick, writing to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey McCordick, Newmarket.

"While in Sicily last October I had a trip up Mount Etna, which I could not write about before on account of censorship.

"Mount Etna received a lot of publicity during the Sicilian campaign. It is fairly high, 10,800 feet, but more noted for its volcano than for its height. The snow ridge starts about 6,000 feet up and we went that far by truck over a modern highway that must have cost the Italians millions of dollars but in peace time it was a great tourist resort on account of skiing.

"A guide led us up and after 9,000 feet the going really got tough. The rarefied air made breathing very difficult and we felt so tired we had to rest every few steps.

"About the 10,000-foot level the mountain culminated into a cone, the actual volcanic part of the mountain. Patches of bare ground testified to the heat below and the rocks were quite warm but the wind was terrific. "The University of Catania had erected an observatory at the base of the cone and we rested there for a while.

"The last 800 feet was nearly vertical and tough going. The cone at the top was about three-quarters of a mile wide and looked like a stone quarry except for geysers of steam here and there caused by the heat beneath.

"We couldn't see any flames as a shell of solidified rock had formed several hundred feet above the bubbling molten rock in the heart of the mountain. It erupts about every seven years but 14 years has elapsed since the last time, so it may go any time.

"Hope some day to see as much of Vesuvius, which I hear has no cap over it and at night we can see the glow in the sky.

"Coming down, we practically slid down in 11 minutes what it took 50 minutes to climb, but at 8,000 feet ran into a cloud as thick as pea soup fog. We had a hard time keeping to the trail and we felt half frozen when we got back to the trucks.

"The mud here in Italy is starting to dry up. Sunny Italy belies its name but I guess the summer will be better. I don't think I will take many pleasure trips back here after the war even if the weather is bragged up to tourists."

Youngster Wins First Ticket For New Revue

Stan. Francis of radio renown is master of ceremonies for the "Victory Revue of 1944," which Newmarket Lions club is bringing to the No. 23 drill hall on Thursday evening, May 4, as a first dividend for early purchasers of Victory bonds.

The first ticket for the show is being claimed by 12-year-old Wendell Gilbert, who walked into the Victory loan office yesterday and applied for a $50 bond.

Wendell is the son of Dr. and Mrs. C. S. Gilbert. Dr. Gilbert served as a captain in the dental corps until recently, when he was discharged because of ill health. Wendell applied for the bond without the knowledge of his parents, and will pay for it out of his own savings.

Tickets for the show are available from the banks, the salesmen or from Morrison's Men's Wear, Gilroy's Men's Wear and Best Drug Store.

Era and Express classifieds are widely read.

INSPECTOR SUGGESTS FIRE HALL CHANGES

A report from Joseph Brammar, fire inspector, to the town council on Monday evening said:

"That churches and schools are in splendid condition, clean with no apparent fire hazard. "That the Strand theatre has carried out all recommendations made by the provincial fire marshal and is A1.

"That Mr. Boag at Oddfellows' hall has carried out all recommendations, with clean building, except panic hardware, and I may add that this hardware was most impossible to secure and it must be made specially to fit each door.

"Very few recommendations were made at the town hall except temporary oil burner, which was removed at once, and panic hardware.

"At business places I had defective smoke-pipes repaired, had some chimneys rebuilt. Some basements were not up to standard, but have since been cleaned. Some of this trouble is caused by saving paper cartons and wastepaper for salvage and some from shortage of help. However, on my last round this month I found everything very satisfactory.

"As the hose tower and fire hall are both out of shape, I would suggest that same be reduced in height to about 30 feet. Also there is no troughing on the fire hall and the old clerk's office. This also creates a very bad condition between the two buildings, causing damage to the walls by ice."

MUST DESTROY GERMAN WAR POWER—PADRE

Salesmen and municipal representatives from every part of North York went away from an organization dinner meeting at Pickering College on Friday evening determined that this unit will make its sixth Victory loan objective of $2,275,000.

Unit chairman Aubrey Davis, Newmarket, presided over the overflow crowd that was present to hear addresses and see war pictures. Organizer H. L. Trapp and his assistant, J. L. R. Bell, arranged the meeting.

"Modern flak is hell," said Rev. Henry Cotton, Trinity United church, Newmarket, an airman in the Great War and an R.C.A.F. padre in the earlier part of this war.

"Our airmen are going through flak tonight, tomorrow night, every night, till victory is won," said Mr. Cotton. "I am flying with those boys, dodging the flak with them, dropping their bombs with them, praying with them," said the former padre.

"The war is all over but the fighting, someone says. Our optimism is giving way to grim determination.

"We must destroy Germany's war factories. It is easier to destroy Germany's war potential before the armistice than after the armistice. We must destroy it this time.

"I wish those clergymen who protest the bombing of German cities would be realists and face the alternative. It is our way of life or theirs, our freedom or theirs.

"Canada's part in this air strategy has been no mean part. "It looked like tragedy when we pulled out of Africa to keep our word in Greece. We kept our word—we always do.

"I sometimes think that something bigger than anything we expect may happen in the Mediterranean zone. We may find ourselves on the flank of the Russians in Roumania and the Balkans.

"Our men are giving their all. They are buying freedom for us. They are counting on you and me. How about it? Every dollar of this Victory loan means more guns, more ships, money saves lives, the lives of our boys."

"There are $37,000,000 more in the banks now than when we took all the money out of the public last September," Harold M. Gully, Toronto business man, told the Victory loan salesmen.

"I wouldn't wonder if the errors of private industry aren't greater than those of government," Mr. Gully said in comment on criticism of the Canadian government.

"All trade is conducted in the human mind," he reminded the salesmen, advising them how to sell Victory bonds.

One movie told the story of the first Canadian Lancaster, from Malton to Berlin. The other was a U.S. war department picture showing the strength of the Axis countries.

Mr. Davis expressed thanks to Headmaster Joseph McCulley and a staff of Newmarket girls for the hospitality of the college.

TWO BOYS, 15, JOIN NORWAY MERCHANTMEN

Mrs. Wm. White, Newmarket, has received an interesting letter from her step-son, Peter White, 15 years old, who with Grant Robinson, also 15, both of Newmarket, recently joined the Norwegian merchant marine in New York, and are now at Boston.

"There are some British boys on board here but most of them are Norwegian," he writes. "Grant is on a different boat to me but we meet at the gate every night. My job is to bring the food in and then when the men finish I wash the dishes. It's easy work and I like it. The men in the crew are swell and we get the best of food, pineapple, tomatoes, eggs, coffee, cookies, milk, jam, meats, vegetables, apples and everything.

"Everybody looks after me here because I'm Canadian and Canadians are sort of scarce around here. Grant and I met two New Zealand petty officers about 28 or 30 and as soon as they found that we were Canadians they took us to the Canadian and British club and we had a lovely time. They gave us some addresses of people they knew if we wanted to sleep off the ship at night.

"I'll be in a cabin of my own in a couple of days and they are lovely cabins. The boat is a cargo ship. The Americans working on the boat are nice fellows. One even offered to take Grant and I out and show us the town and stay at his place for the night, then come back with him when he goes to work in the morning.

"The guards at the gate kid us about being Canadians and most of the Americans here didn't believe us because they think Canadians only either speak French or have a decided English accent. We have five meals a day and all good ones too.

"All the Americans talk about how well the Norwegians treat the crew. If you make a mistake they don't bawl you out, they tell you what to do and encourage you.

"If we go to Boston with the New Zealanders we take the subway. We expect to be here about a week or so longer. We don't go downtown unless we have somebody with us that knows the city. I might get to see Jim and Dave before I get home again. But that won't be too long.

"The New Zealanders showed me all through the N.Z. light cruiser. We got up at 8 in the morning and went at 8.30, then again at 10 or 10.30, then noon, then 3 and then 5. I have from 3 to 4 off and then when I finish the dishes at 6 or 6.30 I have until 8 the next morning off. The bunks are lovely and I have a big drawer and a closet for my belongings."

Council Discusses Fund To Help Boys Get Re-established

Hope that it may be possible to raise a fund of $15,000 to help returning Newmarket soldiers, was expressed by Deputy-Reeve A. D. Evans, chairman of the council's welcome-home and rehabilitation committee, at a town council meeting on Monday evening.

Mayor Dr. L. W. Dales was not present because of illness. Reeve Fred A. Lundy presided.

The council agreed to Mr. Evans' suggestion that $2,000 be appropriated from this year's tax levy for helping returning soldiers, and that the fund "be added to." Money originally budgeted for purchases at a tax sale will be used for this purpose, on the suggestion of Treasurer N. L. Mathews, K.C.

"Meeting of the men coming back will be a small part of the committee's work," said Mr. Evans. He said that dominion government literature on soldier rehabilitation had been turned over to him by Mayor Dales. Dominion government plans provided for a variety of help to the soldier, he explained.

"We would need $6,000 to $15,000 to do a proper job," said Mr. Evans. "Money might be used to help a boy complete his education. We want to help

The presentation was made on behalf of the lodge by W. Bro. Aubrey Davis.

W. Bro. Davis spoke of the early life of Bro. Walton, his various activities throughout the years, and his life of service to his community. Bro. Walton fittingly replied to the address tendered him, thanking the lodge for the honor conferred upon him and speaking of his activities and those associated with him in the past.

The presentation of the gold medal for 50 years' membership is, in the memory of those who were present, only the second in the history of "Tuscan, the late Hon. E. J. Davis being the other recipient.

Public School Board Congratulates Council

The Newmarket town council at a meeting on Monday evening received the following letter from R. L. Pritchard, secretary of the public school board, addressed to Mayor Dr. L. W. Dales:

"The board wishes to congratulate you and the members of the council on including an appropriation for a public health nurse in your 1944 budget.

"We feel it is a progressive step and will be of assistance in our schools."

"That's very nice," commented Deputy-Reeve A. D. Evans. "It is not often that we get any response to anything we do."

N. L. Mathews, K.C., town clerk and solicitor, who is also secretary of the board of health, said that the board had had a meeting concerning the appointment of a nurse.

the boy who has been in Canada too. It is no fault of his if he has not been sent overseas.

"This could be a very useful committee," said Mr. Evans. "I believe that the industrial committee should be included with it too." The industrial committee, of which Councillor Joseph Vale is chairman, is seeking new industries which would provide employment for returning soldiers.

Referring to gifts for returning soldiers, Reeve Fred A. Lundy said: "I am hopeful that some plan can be worked out so that men will be treated alike by all municipalities. We don't want one municipality to do something cheap and another something expensive."

WELCOMING THE BOYS BACK HOME

There is a temptation to become "fed up" with the way United Nations leaders conduct our affairs at times. Few of us have anything but admiration for the way they direct the actual fighting, but good war-makers aren't necessarily good peace-makers, good statesmen. We can't help but wonder at times about the sort of post-war world that they are making for us. Plans for re-making the map of Europe and maintaining powerful national military forces after the war are disturbing, because we have done that sort of thing so often before and always have failed to secure lasting peace.

There is so little discussion of getting at the real causes of war, trade restrictions, migration restrictions, emphasis on race and nation and patriotism to the nation, and the poverty caused by national boundaries and restrictions and the wasteful production of armaments. Even the United States, an example of the comparatively high standard of living that may be achieved when states are not separated by tariff and migration restrictions, and an example of how nationalities may be lost in a new loyalty to a new country, repudiates Wendell Wilkie, a citizen who points to world citizenship as the next forward step for mankind.

The world needs men who are prepared to do things differently, perhaps at some cost to themselves, and discouragement about the post-war world picture is lessened when we find our own municipality determined to do things differently. We refer particularly to the plans of Newmarket town council to accumulate a fund of $15,000, through taxation, to help in a small way some of the returning soldiers. Many of them won't need help. Some of them will need only the extensive help which the dominion government will give in securing education, training, or a start in business or on the farm. Others will need additional help, and a committee of their own neighbors, with money at their disposal, will know best how to give it.

Perhaps this would be the best "war memorial" that the town could plan, a fund with which to help soldiers of the two world wars, established in the first place jointly by the town and private contributions, and maintained by an annual levy through the tax rate. It is possible that the executors of the late Hon. E. J. Davis would consider such a plan as qualifying for the $10,000 bequest which Mr. Davis made available for a war memorial provided that the public put $20,000 with it.

A small committee, of whom a majority should be town councillors, with a substantial fund at their disposal to be spent without giving any public accounting, could see to it that the returning soldiers get a better deal this time than did Great War veterans. It is not too late to do something for Great War veterans too, and they should be included as beneficiaries of the fund. The dominion government has already made splendid provision for the returning soldier, but not necessarily continuing provision, and we believe that Deputy-Reeve A. D. Evans, a war veteran with a son in a German prison camp and another overseas, and his committee have put their shoulders to a big and worthwhile task.

UNDER THE SPREADING CHESTNUT TREE

Our town council has been discussing the historic elm tree that stands in the middle of Timothy St. The mayor, Dr. L. W. Dales, has even hinted that he would not weep if the tree should disappear. Has the town council ever considered getting the town a "spreading chestnut tree," with a blacksmith under it? Or an electrician?

Writing in the Orillia Packet and Times, J. R. Hale wonders what the town's horses will do now that Orillia's only active blacksmith has died. Horses that work on the land and do not go on the hard pavements do not need to be shod, he writes, but town horses should be shod every six weeks. It would therefore seem logical that the few remaining blacksmiths should be located in towns instead of in the country, but the situation is otherwise.

A Newmarket business man drives (by motor) 28 miles to get his horse shod, to Vandorf and back twice, once to get the smithy and again to take him home. The smithy of course knows the size of shoe required or a third trip would be necessary. The blacksmith cannot bring red-hot shoes with him and so he must fit the shoe entirely by paring the hoof.

Mr. Hale writes that "there are few who thought they would live to see the day when Orillia would be without a blacksmith shop where a horse could be shod." In Newmarket we had anticipated such a black-out for quite a long time before it actually occurred some years ago, but we really did not think that we would live to see the day when the town would have no electrician—but such is our present predicament!

TO THE EDITOR

Editor, The Era and Express:
During recent weeks I have been in receipt of a number of letters complaining of delay and non-delivery of mails to and from members of the armed forces overseas. Items and editorials emphasizing some delays have also appeared in the press of Canada.

Knowing how important mail is to men overseas, from the standpoint of morale, advantage has been taken, and will be taken, of every means at our disposal to improve the service.

There is no doubt that there have been delays, but not delays which could be avoided. The time taken, which to anxious relatives and friends may seem unreasonable, has been due to three more or less unavoidable causes, namely:

(1) The lack of transport, both air and surface, on account of the imperative and incessant requirements for vital operations.

(2) Adverse trans-Atlantic weather usually prevalent in the winter months.

(3) The necessary movement of personnel from unit to unit and location to location to meet the exigencies of active operations, and the need of tracing these men and re-directing their mail.

As postmaster-general, I have authorized in the press of Canada a substantial advertising campaign which will explain the reasons for unavoidable delays in mail, and the steps which should be taken by those in Canada sending mail overseas to ensure its proper delivery, i.e., proper addressing, the use of lightweight paper and the proper packaging of parcels.

We are also devoting advertising space to explaining the procedure for the sending of "in hospital" mail. The method of operation of "casualty mail" is outlined in Hansard of Feb. 28 last. I am sending you an excerpt of the Hansard of that date in which the subject of overseas mail is thoroughly discussed.

I quite appreciate the fact that you are pressed for space in your editorial and news columns. However, I feel that the matter of overseas mail has reached the stage of being of paramount national importance. Advertising will not, and cannot, do the job by itself.

I am appealing to you to lend every assistance possible in not only explaining the difficulties being faced by the Canadian postal corps, but also to reassure relatives and loved ones that the post office of Canada is doing

WAIT FOR FISHING

The cold weather has delayed the spring fishing at Lake Simcoe for a couple of weeks. It is thought that fishing conditions will be good once the ice breaks.

A VERY GOOD REASON

An irate travelling man asked a good-natured Maryland taxi driver the other evening, "Why was the Burlington depot built a mile from the business section of the town?"

"I don't know for sure," replied the driver, "but I've lived here a long time, and I have always been told it was in order to have the depot close to the railroad."

Rural Service Extensions in Wartime

War demands come first. Many of the materials needed in providing Hydro rural service, that are plentiful in peacetime, are now required in the manufacture of war weapons. Likewise, many trained Hydro men have taken up war duties in the Army, Navy and Air Force. This results in a shortage of manpower, materials and equipment.

Although working under great difficulties, created by these wartime conditions, Hydro will continue to provide essential rural services as rapidly as possible. However, it can be readily realized that with smaller construction crews, coupled with the scarcity of supplies, it is not possible for Hydro to effect extensions of power lines and services to farms as promptly or on the same scale as in peacetime.

Hydro will make every effort to provide service to the more essential farm and other rural users connected with the production and processing of food. Those farmers and other users requiring electricity to assist in the production of food and for the replacement of labor will be given preference. Farmers located along existing lines will be given priority over those in areas where lines must be constructed. In any case, only extensions of limited length can be considered. All other rural residents on new or existing lines will be supplied with Hydro service as and when conditions permit.

Hydro trusts that this, along with the previous messages, will enable rural consumers to more readily understand the new uniform Hydro rural rates and the influence of wartime shortages of manpower and materials on power extensions. Upon your request, further information on these matters will gladly be supplied by any Hydro Rural District Superintendent.

THE HYDRO-ELECTRIC POWER COMMISSION OF ONTARIO

This completes a series of messages explaining the new Rural Rates and the problems of electric supply to farm and hamlet consumers served direct by The Hydro-Electric Power Commission of Ontario. We suggest you clip and keep these explanations.

Give This Man a Warm Welcome

You may not regard the Victory Loan salesman as a salesman when he calls on you. He is a man from your community whom you likely know well . . . perhaps a neighbor. He may never have done any selling before.

He has taken on this work because he feels that it is an important war job that must be done.

As a matter of fact he is not trying to sell you anything. He will ask you to save money.

Farmers are doing an important war job, too . . . producing food. Most farmers have increased their incomes. They have money to save.

You plan to use this money, and the things you plan to use it for are necessary things.

The Victory Loan salesman will ask you to let your country have the use of your savings now by putting your money into Victory Bonds.

Our big job now is to win the war, and to win it as soon as we can. That's why every Canadian is asked to buy Victory Bonds. It's why each of us is asked to buy all we can. You can buy them with cash, which you have saved, and you can buy more bonds and pay for them as you earn money, over a period of six months.

Your Patronage Is Much Appreciated At Cliff Insley's

A customer walked into Insley's clothing store and asked to see moleskin work pants. After carefully examining a half dozen, customer chose one and asked its price. "It is $2.98," said Cliff.

Producing a page torn from a mail order catalogue, the customer said, "Here is the same pant for only $2.81."

Cliff looked at the picture, pondered, then said, "If they can sell it for that, so can I."

"O.K., I'll take it," said the customer.

Cliff picked up the pants, weighed them on a scale behind the counter and began to make out a sale bill for $2.81 plus $15c. Total $2.96.

"Hey!" shouted the customer. "What's that 15 cents for?"

"For postage. If you sent to the mail order house for it, you'd have to pay postage, wouldn't you?"

The customer had to admit he would. He counted out $2.96.

Cliff wrapped the pants and calmly laid them on a shelf.

"Say, what's the big idea?" asked the customer.

Cliff, with a twinkle in his eye, replied, "Come back in three days and you can have it."

By this time the customer said, "Oh heck, Cliff, I will pay the 15 cents for postage and will pay the extra two cents instead of waiting another three days for delivery from the mail order house."

Thus we parted good friends, and a satisfied customer.

WHEN neighbours discuss coffee they agree on this fact... it's one they learned through having to make a little coffee go a long way:

To be sure of full enjoyment in every cup you must use really good coffee.

And to a very large number of them "really good coffee" simply means "Maxwell House". They've proved by experience how fragrant and full-bodied this famous blend really is.

If you haven't tried Maxwell House lately, you should do so at once. You'll find it extra delicious and extra satisfying because:

1. It's blended from rare, extra-flavor coffees, carefully chosen from the world's finest.
2. Roasted by a special process that captures all the goodness of this finer blend.

Maxwell House is packed in a War-time Bag in an All Purpose Grind and at less cost to you.

MAIL TO REINFORCEMENT UNITS A CHALLENGE TO US ALL...

THIS is a war of movement. Never before have troops been moved such incredible distances, in so many theatres of war, so quickly. Night and day, thousands of men are in motion, by sea transport, motor truck and air... edging into enemy territory, shifting to keep the element of surprise. Did you ever stop to think what it means, under these trying conditions, to find your friend or relative, and put your letter into his hands?

Yet in spite of the tremendous task involved, tracing men who are moving from reinforcement units in England to group depots in Italy... or from one location to another... or through hospitalization or while on leave... in the face of every sort of war hazard... 31,500,000 letters in addition to parcels and other items, reached our men in 1943.

The coming world empire will not be under human control or dictation. It is "the kingdom of God," which Jesus will establish on His return from Heaven, of which He preached as the scriptures plainly declare. This was the hope and belief of the apostles and first century Christians and is of all true Christians today. Jesus alone will unite the world by giving "glory to God" first place. Acts 1: 10, 11; Dan. 7: 18, 22, 27; Luke 12: 31, 32; Acts 3: 20, 21.

Expect Town Will Help With Youngsters' Sport

Aurora teen-agers will have a chance to learn to play hardball, and to play against other boys from neighboring towns if the present plans of Leonard Simmons, Bill Holloway and Charlie Milne, well-known Aurora sportsmen, are carried out.

Mr. Simmons and Mr. Holloway started ten or 12 youngsters playing hardball last year, and even had them in action against Richmond Hill kids. It was hard work, but of the type that pays dividends in citizenship and sportsmanship.

Already these men have contacted Newmarket sportsmen to see if kids' baseball can be started there, and they expect to compete again with Richmond Hill, where the Lions club of that centre has a full summer-time program going for the boys and girls of the village. According to those who have seen the Hill program in operation, it is a model for the district, with a competent playground supervisor in charge at the fair grounds, and children's sports and games in full swing.

Mr. Simmons conferred with the sports committee of the town council on Saturday in order to get municipal approval and co-operation for a more comprehensive sports program for the youngsters.

"We did not have enough equipment last year for all the boys to play," said Mr. Simmons. "We need more gloves and some other equipment. There are lots of kids in town whose parents cannot afford to buy them these articles. I would also like to see some arrangement made for the hours and nights at the park, so that adult sports and kids' sport will not conflict."

"I think we should allot the nights for different sports," said Councillor Rod. Smith. "Perhaps the town park could be better used if the present diamond and the soccer pitch were shifted around a bit. We are anxious for as many people as possible to use the park. Mr. Simmons and those associated with him are doing a fine job for the kids. I think they should be encouraged."

"I like the idea of encouraging the youngsters to play games," said Councillor Thomas Swindle. "It will keep them off the streets and will stop juvenile delinquency. I agree that Mr. Simmons and his associates should be encouraged and I believe the town council would make a grant towards getting them more equipment. Every-one should have a chance to play."

"We treated all the boys the same last year, and will do so again," said Mr. Simmons. "The equipment will be looked after properly and the practices and games will be supervised. A visit to Richmond Hill will show what can be done. Hundreds of youngsters use the park there all week, and have lots of fun."

"I have felt the town needs a sports and recreational director for some time," said Mr. Swindle. "The difficulty is to secure the right man and to meet whatever expenses are involved. Perhaps some organization in town will take this in hand."

Last year it was a North York, Charlie Hemstead, ex-backer of Markham juniors, who won out, with Paolina doing the unexpected. Mr. Hemstead has five entries this year, but of course by the time the opening bugle blows will have scratched a trio. Favorites in the winter books for the race from the 56 entries are Acara, owned by Harry Hatch, and Cyperac, owned by R. S. McLaughlin.

John Stuart, Aurora-born sales tycoon who acquired a racing stable last fall, has an entry for the guineas too, by the name of Sun-in and bought the rink, holding it at the same price and in trust for the citizens pending the raising of funds.

The Lions club sponsored the idea and now the funds are on hand to repay Mr. Solomon. The Alliston rink is by no means a modern one but it would be sorely missed if dismantled. We mention this as a concrete example of the public spiritedness of Lions clubs throughout North America. We can endorse the newly formed Aurora Lions club as something definitely needed in the community, and we are not a member of any Lions club. We have mentioned before the community work done by the Lions at Richmond Hill, Bradford and Stouffville, particularly because of what they had done towards providing recreational facilities for youth.

We wish the newly formed club every success. There is a big job to be done in Aurora for the youth of the town. There is a splendid chance to start the club with a bang and really show the doubting Thomases (of whom there are many) just what unselfish community action can mean.

Sport fans will be pleased to learn that there will be an increasing supply of sports equipment this summer. Tennis balls will surpass by 50 percent the amount on hand last season. The quota is still below par but will ease the situation.

Hardball too will be fairly plentiful for most parts of Canada. The new competitions replace the old, and just as effective, too. The pitchers may not think so, as the balls will be much livelier.

Walter Zuke, ace forward of last winter's Newmarket Redmen, is now taking advanced training at Camp Borden, which will eventually take him overseas.

Johnny Callanan is sporting one hook on his sleeve, having come through the N.C.O. school in fine style. We understand that Callanan is in a low military category and not likely to see overseas service.

Gar. Preston is still confined to hospital from hockey injuries, and Lieut. Bacon, who was bopped on the head by "Joint" McComb, is still taking treatment at the R.A.P.

No. 2 C.A.C.T.R. had a banquet, with each player receiving his sweater and a windbreaker. T. and S. wing held a similar function this week with similar presents. Brampton held a banquet and dance last Thursday night, which was widely attended. The players received windbreakers and a team picture. No. 3 C.A.C.T.R. players each received a picture of the team and small mementos. Newmarket camp, of course, held a dinner dance in Toronto.

"Joint" McComb and Joe Iannarelli of Brampton both wound up the season as members of another championship hockey team as Bowser A.C. took the Metropolitan mercantile circuit and by default the city title too. McComb's presence in the line-up is almost getting synonymous with the word "championship."

Latest baseball flash from no less a personage than Lloyd Douglas, king-pin of Canadian sand-lot baseball, is that he expects Newmarket camp to have a team this season in the Congress circuit. Others expected are Hagersville, R.C.A.F., M.D. 2, army, H.M.C.S. York, navy, and two civilian teams, Tip Tops and Judeans. The latter club is one sponsored by former Jewish hardball stars in Toronto and along with Newmarket would be new faces in the league.

Guess Major Adams and Capt. Pete Kerr must have some aces up their sleeve if they expect to compete with class like that. Some of the Brampton team of last year may end up in Newmarket, we understand. The games, we imagine, would be mostly played in Toronto on weekends and if Acorn park is secured should provide some good gates. Sand-lot baseball in Toronto, even in good times, brings in only chicken feed.

If some of the games were transferred to Newmarket and a moderate gate charged we feel sure the boys from No. 23 would do all right for themselves. We hope that Mr. Douglas is not being too optimistic and that the Redmen will be seen in senior diamond competition this year.

Richmond Hill Bantams lost out in their quest for the T.H.L. title after a four-game series with Marlboros. The latter had the Ottawa Leaf Gardens behind them but the Hill kids just about did the trick. There are some classy kids among this gang of home-brews. The team was composed of Normie Stenden, sensational junior goalie, Ev. Baker, Mac Clement, Sandy Neal, John Atkinson, Frank Sullivan, Lyle Fetch, Gordy Minton, Don Gorsland, Doug Cox, Harry Irl and Doug Moore. A few of the boys were members of the Hill junior basketball team which won district secondary honors this year.

Neil Colville is the latest of the big-name hockey players to forsake the army for the R.C.A.F., being now stationed at Dufour, Man. Neil, it will be remembered, not only starred for Rangers but as an army amateur centred the Ottawa Commandos, Allan Cup winners.

Ace Vake writes from overseas to say that the boys are tossing the big pill around and the game looks ready for a big year. In better health now, Floyd is playing at top speed and is a likely starter for the divisional team.

Al. Dunstall, sports enthusiast at the Aurora R.C.O.C. depot, is now wearing three hooks. A promotion that is well deserved. Al. played soccer, football and hockey with the Ordnance teams despite being a bit past his prime, and didn't do too bad either. It is over 20 years since Al. played junior hockey in goal for a Toronto club against Aurora juniors. He finds time, too, to give the Boy Scouts a hand with things.

Harry Hatfield, 11, a nephew of Miss Helen Blindauer, a former member of The Era and Express staff, was instantly killed when the full discharge of a shotgun, in the hands of his 14-year-old playmate, went off in his face. His home was in Burford township, near Brantford.

The Best farm machinery service in Canada

FACED with the difficulties created by wartime shortages in labor and machinery, Canadian farmers carried on with the equipment that was available, and it is a tribute to their energy and enterprise that they have attained the tremendous increases needed to serve the needs of the United Nations.

To assist them in their greater production programmes, Massey-Harris and its dealers set new and higher standards of service to farmers. In the maintenance of equipment in the hands of farmers, they have prolonged the use of machines beyond their normal life period, and by reconditioning and rebuilding, they have put back into service machines much needed to compensate for the shortage of new ones.

In the supplying of parts—always a feature with the Company—Massey-Harris and its dealers have, during these difficult days of shortage, rendered such an outstanding service as to earn the reputation of being—"The Best Farm Machinery Service in Canada."

Early ordering of repair parts helps you and helps your dealer

EVER have little pigs slow up, go pale in the lips and ears, get "starry" haired... lose ground, and maybe die? That's anaemia. It's very common, and very expensive. Here's a product that prevents it at very low cost... Purina Pigemia. Just paint it on the sow's udder. Then every last youngster in the litter gets its dose.

People who have studied it say that more than half the hogs in this country have worms. Wormy, unthrifty pigs pay no profits. Plan to knock the worms out of yours at 10 to 12 weeks. There's no trick to doing it with these Purina Pigemia. Full but simple directions with every box

MAGISTRATE'S COURT

SPEARED LAKE SIMCOE TROUT BRING FINE

A 20-year record of careful driving was broken for Frank Doyle, Sutton West, when Magistrate K. M. Lingdon found him guilty of careless driving on North St., Sutton, on March 22, and fined him the minimum of $5 and costs or ten days, in York county magistrate's court, Newmarket, last week.

County Constable William Hill told his worship that the charge arose out of a collision in which four cars had taken part. He said that when he arrived on North St., at about 11:20 p.m., he found that the car driven by Mr. Doyle had collided with a car which was parked at the side of the road. This car ran into a second car, which in turn collided with a third car. He stated that the road was 15 feet six inches wide, of which nine feet three inches was available for driving. He stated that the travelled portion of the road was clear and dry but the shoulders icy. The street lights, he said, were 25 feet away.

The officer said that he questioned the defendant, who admitted that he was the driver and he said that he had been trying to avoid hitting a car parked on one side of the road and did not see the one parked on the other side.

Mrs. Rose Doyle, wife of the defendant, and Mrs. Frances Dalton, passengers in Mr. Doyle's car, both stated that the defendant had been driving at about 15 miles an hour at the time of the accident. Mrs. Doyle expressed the opinion that the first car, which was parked on an angle, was "further out on the road than it should have been."

Mr. Doyle stated that the street light had been behind his car and that he was unable to see the parked car.

"I can't see why you could not have passed on a nine-foot five-inch road without colliding with the other car," stated his worship. "But in view of this being your first offence I am giving you the minimum fine."

Pleading guilty to having in his possession fish caught in a manner prohibited by law, Lyle Hales, Port Bolster, was fined $10 and costs or 30 days.

"On March 21, while patrolling Lake Simcoe in company with Constable Buie, I came across the accused in his fish-house," testified Game Warden Ernest Prosser. "I found four trout that had been speared."

Found guilty of fishing in a manner other than by angling or trawling, Herbert Hales, Port Bolster, was also fined $10 and costs or 30 days. The defendant pleaded guilty to the charge.

"On March 21, accompanied by Constable Prosser, I approached the fish-house occupied by the accused at Lake Simcoe," testified Constable Gordon Buie. "The accused had thrown his spear to the bottom of the lake and a cord from the spear was attached to the side of the house. I pulled the spear up and found two trout attached."

His worship ordered that the spear be confiscated.

Magistrate Lingdon, at the request of Crown Attorney Arleigh Armstrong, issued a warrant for the arrest of Richard Foster, 176 Eastern Ave., Toronto, to answer charges of careless driving and driving while his license was suspended. Mr. Foster failed to appear.

Provincial Constable Alex. Ferguson told his worship that he had been informed that the defendant was in hospital. His worship asked that the matter be investigated before the warrant is issued. If Mr. Foster is not in hospital, the warrant will be issued.

Found guilty of illegal parking in Newmarket, Harford Wardell, Queensville, was fined $1 and costs. Constable Kenneth Mount laid the charge.

Enjoying Trip Around World, Writes Soldier

"You may be interested to know that I met Leon. Coupland, a Newmarket boy, here in the hospital," writes Cpl. Jack Luesby in a letter to the Newmarket Veterans Soldiers Comforts fund. "Although he has had quite a long illness he looks none the worse. He certainly knows how to talk because we have had some grand old talks about the people in the old home town."

"He tells me that there are several boys from home and I would like to meet them and renew acquaintances. Leon is the first I have met, so here's hoping that we can keep in touch with each other. It does help a lot to see an old face once in a while."

"Our weather is rather on the bad side just now, but we are hoping to see better days. I am feeling fine and am certainly enjoying the trip around the world in spite of the few hardships we have to put up with."

"We are counting on finishing the job this year and getting back to our families before Christmas," writes Capt. G. A. Crutcher to the Veterans.

"Sorry to read of the passing of Bill White, whom I'm sure will be greatly missed," writes Cpl. G. E. Boyd to the Veterans. "I've met Ken Mitchell over here and see him every day," writes Dvr. G. E. Myers to the Veterans. "The weather is lovely over here at present and the trees are beginning to blossom, so spring is really here."

First: "You should have seen the fish I caught last week. It was so big it pulled me into the river."

Second: "Got a good waiting, I suppose?"

First: "Oh, no; thank goodness, I landed right on top of the fish."

SKIES FILLED WITH BOMBERS — ALDERSON

"Here we are once more with a few lines to say hello from Italy and to thank you for the lovely parcel that I received the other day," writes Sgt. Bob McCarnan to the Newmarket Veterans Soldiers Comforts fund.

"I admit that it was a little late for Christmas but I can assure you that it was really appreciated more than ever. Just the thought that the old home town thinks of the boys when they are so far from home is a great comforting thought."

"I do not think so much of this Italian weather this last two weeks. We are all but swimming, we have had so much rain. Everything is damp and cold. I guess when the good weather does come it will be so hot that we will be complaining of the heat. Oh well, I suppose we won't be satisfied until everybody is back leading a normal life again and we can thank you for everything you have done for us since we left home."

"In closing I am thanking you a hundred times for the very lovely parcel and hoping to see you all soon (I can dream, can't I?)"

"Many thanks for the cigarettes that I received today," writes Staff-Sgt. Ernest McCaffrey. "They came just at the right time because they are the first I have received since around Christmas. Things here in Italy are going along quite well but we have been having terrible weather up until today. I have run into a few boys from town over here and it was quite a surprise. I received three copies of the town paper this weekend and they made interesting reading. They were all pretty old but it was good to see them again."

"I was just reading in the Newmarket paper what good things the Veterans are doing for the boys overseas," writes Pte. H. N. Smart.

"We are living under canvas now and the mornings remind us very much of the Canadian winter but the days are really very pleasant," Capt. J. A. Patterson writes in a card of appreciation to the Veterans.

"It is very lovely weather over here now and as warm as June," writes Pte. Joe Alderson in a letter to the Veterans. "The skies are filled with our bombers heading for Germany and if they keep up the work they have been doing lately it shouldn't be long before this old war is over."

TO THE EDITOR

Editor, The Era and Express: Time and time again I have been intending to write you, wishing to express my appreciation for the Newmarket Era and Express you so kindly send each week. I know the other boys from the home town who also receive your paper enjoy reading it as much as I do.

At present we are not in action but very shortly hope to be seeing more. I have met a number of the Newmarket lads here in Italy and although they are quite happy, they, like myself, look forward to the day when once again we can set foot on good old Canadian soil.

The weather here is still terrible. One really nice day comes along, then for the next week it does nothing but rain, snow and blow. You can imagine the kind of weather we are having. When in bed the other night I had my woolen gloves on in order to keep my hands warm while reading.

What a country!

We are able to see a couple of shows a week in a nearby Italian town and when weather permits have an outdoor picture show here in our present area.

The Italian people sure do try and get every last cent they can for their eggs, oranges, nuts, etc. We, the soldiers, take a beating in that respect but now that we are wiser to them we manage to bring them down to our own prices.

Once again it's meal time. So
